

LBMW SCHOOLS LEGAL CONFERENCE

---

The Partners of Lee Bolton Monier-Williams wish to give you advance notice of a

Conference to be held at Vintners' Hall on 1st of May 2012

The aim of the conference is to examine the rapidly changing educational landscape and to highlight some of the legal issues affecting today's schools.

The conference is for governors, heads and bursars of schools within both the independent and maintained sectors and it is hoped that representatives from academies and free schools will attend in addition to those from independent schools.

The keynote speeches will be on the topic "Independent Schools, Academies, Free Schools: Which Way Forward?" and will be given by

- Dr Anthony Seldon, The Master of Wellington College
- Sir Bruce Liddington, Director General of E-ACT
- Howard Dellar, Head of the Schools and Charity Department of LBMW

Further sessions will be on:

"Charities Leading Change – Legal Issues in the Education Revolution" presented by Robert Cottingham, Partner and David Whittington OBE, Education Advisor at LBMW; and

"Employment Retirement Issues" presented by Oliver Hyams, Barrister with Devereux Chambers and Edward Macey-Dare, Partner at LBMW.

It is anticipated that the conference will start at 10.15 am and finish at 3.50pm with an informal reception. Lunch will be provided. A fee of £95 will be charged for attendance and any profits will be donated to charity.

Vintners' Hall is on Upper Thames Street in the City of London, near Southwark Bridge, and is a beautiful and fascinating building of historic importance. There will be an opportunity for guided tours.

Invitations will be sent in late February and we very much hope that the conference will be of interest to you.

Further information can be obtained from Sarah Neden who can be contacted on 02072225381 or at sarah.neden@lbmw.com.